 - “ ensure up-to-date and effective risk profile and management strategy
 - “ monitor critical risks
 - “ the Board, while meeting its responsibilities, is mindful of the organisations mission and the objects of the organisation as embodied in its Constitution.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The functions of the Board are to:

- Provide effective leadership and collaborate with the Executive Director in:
 - “ articulating the organisation’s values, vision, mission and strategies
 - “ developing strategic (direction) plans and ordering strategic priorities
 - “ maintaining open lines of communication through the organisation and with external stakeholders
 - “ developing and maintaining an organisation structure to support the achievement of agreed strategic objectives
- Monitor the performance of the Executive Director against agreed performance indicators
- Be advised of the business (action) plans and annual budget proposed by the Executive Director
- Monitor the achievement of the strategic and business plans and annual budget outcomes
- Establish such committees, policies and procedures as will facilitate the more effective discharge of the Board’s roles and responsibilities
- Ensure, through the Board committees and others as appropriate, compliance obligations and functions are effectively discharged
- Initiate a Board self-evaluation program and follow-up action to deal with issues arising and arrange for directors to attend courses, seminars and participate in development programs as the Board judges appropriate
- Ensure that all significant systems and procedures are in place for the organisation to run effectively, efficiently, and meet all legal and contractual requirements
- Ensure that all significant risks are adequately considered and accounted for by the executive management team.
- Ensure that organisation has appropriate corporate governance structures in place including standards of ethical behaviour and promoting a culture of corporate and social responsibility.

The Board has no operational involvement in the conduct of the organisation’s business activities and delivery of services. Its role is confined to setting and reviewing policy.

MEMBERSHIP AND TERM

The Board consists only of non-executive directors, the majority of whom are independent. That is, no member of the Board may be a member of the paid staff of the organisation.

All Board members are subject to the Conflict of Interest policy.

Membership of the Board shall be disclosed in the annual report including whether a director is independent or not independent.

The Board will periodically review the skills and experience of its members.

BOARD CULTURE

The Board actively seeks to have an engaged culture which is characterised by candour and a willingness to challenge. The following table is used to provide evidence of an engaged culture [taken from Increasing Director Performance (Australian Company Director, Vol 20 No 8 2004)]:

Agendas

- The agendas of the Board limit presentation time and maximise discussion time.
- There are lots of opportunities for informal interactions among Board members.

Norms

- Board members are honest yet constructive.
- Members are ready to ask questions and willing to challenge leadership.
- Members actively seek out other members' views and contributions.
- Members spend appropriate time on important issues.

Beliefs

- %I don't come prepared, I will be embarrassed.+
- %I don't actively participate, I won't be fulfilling my responsibility.+
- %I earn the respect of fellow Board members by making valuable contributions and taking responsibility for what I do.+

- If I can't carry my load, or if I can't agree with what's going on, I should resign.

Values

- The Board serves the community by actively participating in governance.
- The Board is responsible to various stakeholders.
- Board members are personally accountable for what goes on at the organization.
- The Board is responsible for maintaining the organization's stature in the sector.
- Board members respect each other.

REPORTING

Proceedings of all meetings are minuted and signed by the Chair of the meeting.

Minutes of all Board meetings are circulated to directors and approved by the Board at the subsequent meeting.

BOARD COMMITTEE'S
